

Criteria for Affiliate Membership (Supporting Organization) Membership

Affiliate Members (also referred to as "Supporting Organizations") are legal entities such as partnerships, corporations, or other institutions or organizations involved in the dental industry as providers of professional services or products to companies defined as NADP full voting members.